

MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK

PO-1: Fundamental Knowledge Enrichment: MSW Programme provides a platform in articulating the philosophy, ideologies, developmental theories and code of ethics to emerge as complete Social Work Professional personality.

PO-2: Critical Thinking and Professional Judgment: The Programme promotes the understanding of critical/analytical abilities, ethical decision-making processes in dilemma situation in social work methodologies, schemes and projects.

PO-3: Emerging Socio-Economic and Political Situations: The Programme clarifies the core concepts of national social policies and analogy of social, economic and political maladjustment in social work context.

PO-4: Training on Problem Solving Skills and Tools: The Programme strengthens the students in understanding the various problem solving skills, tools and techniques required in approaching the social problems.

PO-5: Programme Planning and Management Capabilities: The students are given a suitable environment in developing insights about project planning/management and proposal making.

PO-6: Sensitization and Social Interactions: The Programme empowers the student's inner instincts and overall thought development in having sensitization towards different groups in various settings.

PO-7: Team Work and Leadership Development: The Programme helps to understand the impact factors of working across the cultures and creates a sustainable working/social environment.

PROGRAM SPECIFIC OUTCOMES: MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK

PSO.01:	Understand the basic concepts pertaining to social work profession.
PSO.02:	Understand the context and reasons for the origin and development of social work in India and the West
PSO.03:	Understand the rationale, goals, ideals and ethics for bringing about desired social work

COURSE OUTCOMES: MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK

COURSE OUTCOMES
Sl. No.	Course Code	Course Name	Course Outcomes
1	MSW1.1	Introduction to Social Work (History, Philosophy and Ideology) I Sem	CO1: Understand the history of evolution of social work profession, both in India and the West. CO2: Develop insights into the origin and development of ideologies, approaches to social change. CO3: Understand rationale, goals, ideals and ethics for social change. CO4: Understand the perceptions of people and social problems, the status of benefactors and the motives. CO5: Develop skills to understand contemporary reality in its historical context. CO6: Understand self as a part of own environment and explore own assumptions, ideals, values to develop sensitivity to marginalization of vulnerable groups.
2	MSW1.2	Social Case Work . I Sem	CO1 Understand casework as a method of social work, and appreciate its place in social work practice CO2: Understand the values and principles of working with individuals and families. CO3. Develop the ability to critically analyses problems of individuals and families and factors affecting them CO4: Enhance understanding of the basic concepts, tools and techniques in working with individuals and families, in problem-solving and in developmental work CO5: Develop appropriate skills and attitudes to work with individuals and families.
3	MSW 1.3	Social Group Work I Sem	CO1: Develop awareness about the specific characteristics of Group Work and its contributions as a method of social work intervention. CO2: Gain knowledge about group formation and the use of a variety of group approaches. CO3: Develop understanding of concepts, dynamics and small group theory in relation to all types of groups, e.g. family, staff, committee, long-term client groups. CO4: Identify the various situations and settings where the method could be used, in the context of social realities of the country.
4	MSW 1.4	Community Organization and Participatory Development. I Sem	CO1: Understand the critical elements of community organization practice. CO2: Enhance critical understanding of the models and strategies for community organization practice. CO3: Make the micro-macro connections between the range of complex issues in practice. CO4: Develop attitudes conducive to participatory activities for civil society.

5	MSW1.6 B	Development Communication. I Sem	CO1: To provide the required knowledge to understand the importance of communication for effective social work practice. CO2: To inculcate communication skills among social work trainees. CO3: To understand the importance and the role of media for effective communication. CO4: To understand the need and importance of developmental communication.
6	MSW 2.1	Social Work Administration and Social Action. II Sem	CO1: Understand the overall environment and its impact on the nature, structure and development of organizations in corporate, public and voluntary sectors in the context of social work profession. CO2: Understand policies and procedures involved in establishing and maintaining human service organizations CO3 Acquire skills to network and participate in the management of resources - human, material and environmental. CO4: Develop skills to participate in management of programmes, as a part of the interdisciplinary team and initiate as well as develop new programmes. CO5: Develop ability to use the method of Social Action to specific settings.
7	MSW2.2	Psychological Foundation for Social Work. II Sem	CO1: Psychological Foundation for Social Work CO2: Understand the important concepts of psychology. CO3: Understand how to put the knowledge of psychology into the practice of Social Work
8	MSW 2.3	Social Sciences Foundation for Social Work.	CO1: Understand the important concepts of psychology. CO2: Understand how to put the knowledge of psychology into the practice of Social Work.
9	MSW 2.4	Fields of Social Work Practice. II Sem	CO1: Provide an exposure to the fields of social work. CO2: Equip with the necessary information of the existing policies and services in the fields of social work.
10	MSW 3.1	Social Legislation and social policies . II Sem	CO1: To acquire a basic understanding of legal system and the Indian constitution with special emphasis on the Fundamental rights and the Directive principles of the state. CO2:To understand the various provisions and features of the different personal laws and social legislations. CO3:To enable the students to contextualise contemporary human rights CO4:To motivate the students in a proactive thinking process with a human rights perspective CO5:Gain knowledge on Social Policy, Social Planning, Social Development and Social Legislations

11	MSW 3.2	Social Work Research and Statistics. III Sem	CO1: Develop an understanding of scientific approach to human inquiry in comparison to the native or common-sense approach in various aspects, and its process. CO2: Understand major research strategies, meaning, scope and importance of social work research. CO3: Develop an ability to see the linkages between practice, research, theory and their role in enriching one another.
12	MSW 3.3B	Rural Governance and Development. III Sem	CO1: To gain knowledge about rural realities and problems in rural communities. CO2: To gain knowledge about theories and approaches of community development and experiments about rural community development. CO3: To understand the local self-administration of rural development and various development agencies working for rural development. CO4: To learn about community development programmes in India and polices.
13	MSW 3.4B	Urban Governance and Development. III Sem	CO1: Develop an understanding of factors associated with urbanisation and its consequences CO.2. Develop an understanding of policies and programmes of urban development. CO3: Acquire knowledge of various approaches to urban community development
14	MSW 4.1	Disaster Management and Rehabilitative Services. IV Sem	CO1: Understand key concepts, theories and approaches of disaster management with specific reference to Indian context CO2: Develop skills to analyse factors contributing to disaster CO3: Develop an understanding of the process of disaster management CO4: Develop an understanding of the social worker's role in the team for disaster management
15	MSW 4.2	Project Management for Participatory Development.	CO1: Understand different perspectives of development and approaches for community development. CO2: Understand process and components of project management. CO3: Develop application skills for effective organisational management.

16	MSW 4.3 B	Tribal Development and Ecological Social . IV Sem	CO1 To facilitate the students to have broader understanding about various aspects of Tribal Community Development with special reference to its programs in Indian context. CO2: Apply knowledge on Social Work for the development of tribal community in India CO3: To sensitise the learner on the basics and relevance of ecological social work CO4:To develop a perspective about the interrelatedness of human life and environment CO5: To understand the problems arising out of environmental degradation and globalization
17	MSW 4.4 B	Development of Children and Differently-Abled. IV Sem	CO1: To gain insight into children and adolescents as a special group in varied perspectives, child development and healthy development CO2: To understand children facing difficult circumstances and the impact of difficult circumstances on children's development. CO3: To gain an overview of agencies where children form the major client group, and appropriate evaluation of children's problems CO4:To impart to the trainee, specific social work intervention methods in dealing with children as a client group; to understand the Rights of children in the legal, national and international context. CO5: To gain knowledge about the concept of and different types of disabilities